

WHOLESALE HOLLY PRICE LIST, FALL 1961

SIMPSON ORCHARD CO., INC.

1504 WHEATLAND ROAD

VINCENNES, INDIANA

TELEPHONE TU 2-2441

ILEX OPACA

SIZE	MEDIUM	SPECIMEN
2-3'	3.50	5.00
3-4'	5.00	6.50
4-5'	6.50	8.00
5-6'	8.00	10.00
6-8'	12.00	20.00
8-10'	20.00	30.00

All plants are well grown, free of leaf miner and leaf spot. Abundance of fruiting varies with varieties. Most varieties have a good to heavy set of berries.

> The varieties we have in considerable number are: Eetsy, Cape > Cod Dwarf, Christmas Carol, Clark, Draper, Farage, Griscom, Hedge-
> holly, Mae, Manig, Mrs. Santa, Toms Rivers, Torch Bearer, Westcroft, > Yule; males, Frank and Ed Thomas. In fewer numbers we have: Goldie,
Johnson, Angelica, Miss Helen, Cardinal, Arden and Old Heavy Berry.
Also, some excellent seedlings, male and female.

ILEX CRENATA HETZ

12-15"	2.00
15-18"	2.50
18-24"	3.25

ILEX CRENATA ROTUNDOFOLIA

12-15"	2.00
15-18"	2.50
18-24"	3.25
3-4'	5.00

DECIDUOUS HOLLIES

ILEX VERTICILLATA (male & female)

2-3'	2.50
3-4'	3.75

ILEX DECIDUA (male & female)

4-5'	5.00	Foliage and form much superior to verticillata.
5-6'	6.50
6-8'	8.00
8-10"	12.50	Berries normally retain color all winter.

Above prices B&B. Named varieties individually labeled for variety if desired.

Spring dug Ilex opaca often drop all or most leaves as new growth starts. Established plants may drop only a few at a time over an extended period. Heavy mulch is advised for first two or three seasons.

